Bill for J&M Heating service contract was questioned by Ellen Hauptman. The bill presented for payment is for the previous years contract 6/1/23 - 5/31/24 that had not been paid - account is being reviewed as there are some credits to be applied and then bill will be finalised.

All other bills presented were approved by the board.

4. Financial Update

Financial update reported by Ellen Hauptman

The budget deficit of $356,000 has been fully closed.

Library Income and expense are running better than plan plan. Year to date, Other Revenue received is better than plan due to $28,000 from the sale of artwork, insurance reimbursement and higher than planned interest rates. Additionally, the year to date donations of $269,000 were not planned. Expenses are also running below plan.

Was discussed and decided that the business office should make two transfers to the payroll account each month as opposed to one - to take advantage of better interest rate in operation account vs payroll account (no interest paid in this account)
